The Swedish Single Tax Monthly.

The July Budkavlen (The Summons), the organ of the Swedish Single Tax propaganda, contains a very interesting article by Carl Lindhagen. Mr. Lindhagen is the Mayor of Stockholm, the Swedish capital, and he is also a Socialist. But he sees the cat partially, and the article shows him to be a man with an open mind, which takes a broad view of the world and its social phenomena. "The land value case," he says in the opening paragraph, "is like all truths, not new, but needs, like all truths, constant repetition, and deserves the greatest attention. A reform that will socialize land values (that is, those values which are produced by all the citizens in common, so essential because they are the foundation of social wealth and power), is well suited to set many things straight that are now out of joint." The same number also gives a short account of Joseph Fels's recent visit to Sweden, from July 11th to 20th. He appears to have been cordially received, and spoke at several meetings, to audiences ranging from 400 to 1,000 people. The newspapers of the country seem to have given him considerable attention, both favorable and otherwise. (Johan Hansson, Editor, Tunnelgatan 19, Stockholm, Sweden. A hungry customer seated himself at a table in a quick-lunch restaurant and ordered a chicken pie. When it arrived he raised the lid and sat gazing at the contents intently for a while. Finally he called the waiter.

"Look here, Sam," he said, "what did I order?"

"Chicken pie, sah."

"And what have you brought me?"

"Chicken pie, sah."

"Chicken pie, you black rascal!" the customer re-

A Call to an Alberta Mason for Information

A California Mason, with a wife, daughter and two grown sons, wants to take up some land and go to farming. We have no experience in this line and would solicit some information as to a location and the method of getting a start. $500.00 can be raised on some real estate that we possess, which would enable us to come in the spring of 1912. Information of this kind would be at first hand, and would help us to get settled in a community that would kindly give us the benefit of their knowledge. Address James S. Ward, 225 11th St., San Francisco, Cal.

Your Renewal Free

¶ One of our subscribers in Binghamton (N. Y.) thinks we "are too high on the subscription price." The Public is all right, he says, but he wants it at a "sale-day" figure.

¶ We'd like to send The Public free to everyone who finds it hard to get together one hundred cents to pay the subscription, but the trouble is that our bills for paper, printing, etc., come tripping along every thirty days. Rolls and coffee, too, are ten cents a time in Chicago.

¶ But it beats me why this reader should think it necessary to send us any of his money. It's not. Last year some one took him in on a club at club rates. This year if he gets two friends to subscribe and sends us their names and their two dollars we will renew his subscription free.

¶ And this applies also to you.
